Dear Participants of the Eurographics Symposium on Rendering 2010,

Thank you for registering with us.

For your convenience, we have put a campus map online at <http://www.mpi-inf.mpg.de/eqsr2010/campus.pdf> that shows the way to the conference site.

The conference will take place in building A3.3 (Aula), the auditorium of Saarland University.

The registration desk for participants of EGSR will be open on Sunday, June 27th from 5pm to 7pm as well as on Monday, July 28th from 8am onwards where we will provide you with your conference badge, proceedings, receipt of payment and conference bag.

At the registration desk you will also be able to collect your login for the university wi-fi which will be available during the whole conference (no extra fee).

You can use this letter as a bus ticket from Sunday, June 27th to Monday, June 28th, until you have registered on site. Your conference badge will serve as a bus ticket then.

Please find relevant bus connections to the university campus as well as a small map with hotel and conference locations on the back of this letter.

The three marked bus stops are the most convenient ones, all mentioned bus lines will directly go to university.

Should you arrive by car, please park in the marked car park at the main entrance of the university. At the registration desk, your parking ticket will be exchanged for a ticket to exit the campus at no charge.

We are looking forward to seeing you in Saarbrücken,

Your EGSR Organization Team
