

Presenting at International Conferences in the Humanities & Social Sciences

TARGET GROUP	Doctoral Researchers in the Humanities and Social Sciences
TARGET	Presenting your research at an international conference can be a nerve-wracking experience. How do you know which conferences to attend, how can you improve your chances of acceptance, and what does it take to deliver an effective presentation?
TOPICS	This two-part workshop, designed to boost presenters' confidence, combines an introduction to academic conferences, writing abstracts and preparing presentations, with a practical session on the second day (run as a mock-conference) in which participants have the opportunity to rehearse the delivery of their presentations, handle questions and receive feedback.
TRAINER	Josie Dixon, Publishing and Research Training Consultant, www.lucianconsulting.com
VENUE	Tagungsstätte Harnack-Haus der MPG, Ihnestraße 16–20, 14195 Berlin www.harnackhaus-berlin.mpg.de
FEE	The Administrative Headquarter will cover the fees for the speaker. The institute needs to cover your travel expenses. Please note: Permission from your supervisor must be obtained before applying.
